Sambandha the ultimate
Yoga and Pilates bag

One bag for your mat and everything else you need.

Being a Yoga or Pilates teacher or practitioner means carrying two bags at the same time. One for the mat and a second for a towel, clothes, drink bottle and more. That is annoying or in other words: It was annoying. In Sambandha you'll find the first combination of both. These two innovations are not only reasonably priced but they also look good.

developed in Germany

Ankletoknee, a young company for yoga equipment in Cologne, developed the bag. They operate in Europe only.
Now YogaLoka brings this unique product to Australia.

Ankletoknee sets values on convenience, quality and design. Their products are from Yogi to Yogi. All their products have been self-developed based on personal experience and daily practice.

Ankletoknee's core values are highest functionality, top quality and appealing design.

Ankletoknee is a member of Fair Wear Foundation. All products are Fair Trade products.
What else would a Yogi choose.

Click your mat underneath, put your other things inside and there is another department on the outside securely closed with at zip.
